

'My Son's Poem'

As told by Aaron Topper at the Project Focus Event, Chicago, 9.4.18.

Hashem doesn't have an Android or an iPhone, but He is my favorite contact.

He doesn't have Facebook, but He is my best friend.

He doesn't have Twitter, but I follow Him nevertheless.

He doesn't have internet, but I am connected to Him.

And even though he has the largest communication system in the universe and is busier than any person that ever existed, he never puts me on hold, always listens with full attention, and always answers me.
